An anime-style illustration of two young women in school uniforms. They are both wearing dark blue sailor-style jackets with white stripes on the collar and red ties. The woman on the left has long black hair, and the woman on the right has long brown hair. Both are smiling and making peace signs with their hands. The background is a warm orange with soft, out-of-focus light circles. A bright white starburst with red rays emanates from the bottom left, framing the text.
